

2010 ESPN National Golf Challenge
Local Qualifier
Saturday, June 26, 2010
8:00 A.M. Shotgun Start

The ESPN National Golf Challenge will crown the best two-person teams in America during the National Finals in Las Vegas in October. The event is open to male and female golfers with USGA approved handicaps. Teams will consist of two amateur players participating in either the Gross or Net divisions. No individual player may use a handicap higher than 24.

Format: The format will be Better-Ball-of Twosome (Gross and Net) with the winning teams advancing to the Regional Finals on Sunday, August 15th at the Osprey Ridge Golf Course at Walt Disney World.

Teams: The ESPN National Golf Challenge is open ONLY to amateur golfers as defined by the United States Golf Association (USGA). Teams in the ESPN National Golf Challenge may be formed by any combination of male and female participants (two men, one man and one woman or two women). All play will be in a single division.

Senior Division: There will be a Senior Division for those participants who will achieve the age of 55 during the year of the Local Qualifier. Senior players are eligible to compete from a forward set of tees at each level of the competition and will play for Net score only.

Cost: The cost per person will be $80.00 which will include golf, range balls before the round, lunch, prizes, one dozen Callaway izTour Balls and a one year subscription to Golf Magazine.

Triple Play: For an additional $49.00 per player, you can Wheel the Foursome where you will combine your better ball score with 3 partners instead of 1. You will receive an additional dozen golf balls for your participation.

Regionals: Teams will advance based on the number of qualifiers at their local course or club. The basic formula for advancing to the next level is:

12 teams	1 Team Advance
20 or more teams	3 Teams Advance

Finals: The National Finals will be held on October 21-23, 2010 in Las Vegas, NV at the Las Vegas Paiute Golf Resort.
