Holmes/Coffey Capture Fourth "Dick Bird" Title in Five Years

Raines Holmes and Cade Coffey ran away with the 31st Annual "Dick Bird" Treasure Coast Team Championship successfully defending their title with the eight shot victory. With blistering rounds of 66 and 63, the dynamic duo, who both play on the Palm Beach Atlantic Golf Team, claimed their fourth "Dick Bird" Team Title in the past five years.

Also successfully defending their senior title was the team of Tim Kelly and Bob Noe who squeaked out a one shot victory over Stephen Bell/Mario St Martin and Tracy Frey/Joe Swain. The team started the day four shots back but claimed the Senior Title with a second round 69 to finish three under for the event.

The event is named after former County Commissioner Dick Bird who was instrumental back in the mid 1980's to build and operate a public golf course owned by Indian River County. With his hard work and dedication, Sandridge Golf Club opened for play in April 1987 with his vision of exceptional playability at an affordable price for the citizens of Indian River County and visitors as well.
